I. Financial Statements: Copies of the full set of financial statements for the five most recently completed accounting years, if available. Also, if available, the financial statements for any interim period since the end of the most recent full year, together with a copy of the financial statements for the same interim period portion of the prior year. 1.1 Supporting Schedules: Each of the financial statements should include a schedule of: 1.1.1 for the balance sheet: a) other assets; b) any investment type assets; c) deposits and prepaids if significant; and d) "other liabilities." 1.1.2 for the income statement: a) cost of sales; b) any other income; c) any other expenses; and d) the more common line items expense breakdown. 2. Income tax returns: For the same years as above (if available). 3. Accumulated Depreciation: Unlike the schedules under 1.1, we need this schedule only as of the most recent balance sheet. A schedule of the accumulated depreciation broken down by category of depreciating assets with the aggregate equal to the total of the accumulated depreciation on the balance sheet. (Simply providing the depreciation schedule does not satisfy this request.) 4. Related Party Activities: A copy of any loans, leases or other agreements between the business and any of the owners/shareholder(s) or entities in which any shareholder(s) are principals. 5. Ownership Agreements: Copies of any agreements among or between the owners/shareholders. Including, but not limited to, buy-sell agreements, options, and right of first refusal.
